

INFORMATION, MEDIA AND TECHNOLOGY LITERACY (IMT):

Educational Tools, Digital Transformation, and NEP 2020

An Edited Volume on Digital Education, IMT Literacy, and Educational Innovation

1. BRIEF INTRODUCTION OF THE BOOK

This edited volume explores the triad of Information, Media and Technology Literacy (IMT) and its transformative role in education through digital tools, innovative pedagogies, and the vision of NEP 2020. It brings together research-backed insights, best practices, emerging trends, and future-ready approaches to empower learners, educators, and institutions in a technology-driven world.

The book aims to serve as a comprehensive resource for researchers, academicians, teacher educators, policy makers, and practitioners seeking to advance IMT literacy, integrate educational tools, and contribute to the goals of NEP 2020 for an inclusive, equitable and future-oriented education system.
