

BOOK PROPOSAL

RESEARCH INDEXING AND SCHOLARLY IMPACT

A Comprehensive Guide to Visibility, Metrics and Impact in Academic Publishing

This edited book aims to provide a comprehensive guide to research indexing, citation metrics, and scholarly impact strategies, bringing together perspectives from bibliometricians, academic editors, publishers, librarians, and experienced researchers to maximize visibility and career advancement in the digital age.

1. BRIEF INTRODUCTION OF THE BOOK

In today's academic world, the visibility and recognition of research work depend heavily on indexing. Indexing databases such as Scopus, Web of Science, and the Book Citation Index (BKCI) serve as gatekeepers that determine which research gets seen, cited, and rewarded. Yet, most researchers—especially early-career scholars and those from developing countries—struggle to understand how these systems work, what criteria they use, and how to strategically publish in indexed venues.

This edited book aims to fill this critical gap. It provides a comprehensive guide to research indexing, citation metrics, and scholarly impact strategies. The book brings together perspectives from bibliometricians, academic editors, publishers, librarians, and experienced researchers. It covers both the theoretical foundations of indexing and practical strategies for researchers to maximize their scholarly visibility and career advancement.

The book is unique because it focuses specifically on indexing and its implications for book publishing, edited volumes, and chapters—areas often neglected in traditional publishing guides. It also addresses regional challenges, ethical concerns like predatory publishing, and the future of research evaluation in the digital age.

2. KEY HIGHLIGHTS OF THE BOOK

- ✓ Comprehensive coverage of indexing databases and criteria
- ✓ In-depth understanding of metrics and research impact
- ✓ Practical strategies for publishing in indexed venues
- ✓ Special focus on books, edited volumes and chapters
- ✓ Ethical publishing and future trends in research evaluation
- ✓ Insights from global experts and real-world experiences

3. THEMES AND SUB-THEMES

The book is organized around six major themes, each containing specific sub-themes.

01

Foundations of Research Indexing

- Definition and significance of research indexing
- Historical evolution of citation indexing
- Understanding indexing criteria
- Overview of BKCI and its features
- Indexing vs. abstracting services
- Relationship with university rankings

02

Major Indexing Databases and Their Working

- Scopus: scope, coverage, selection criteria
- Web of Science & its indexes (SCI, SSCI, AHCI, BKCI)
- Google Scholar: strengths & weaknesses
- Regional & subject-specific databases
- Metadata & its role in discoverability
- Comparative analysis of indexing coverage

03

Metrics, Evaluation and Research Impact

- Citation metrics: h-index, impact factor, etc.
- Book-level metrics and citation patterns
- Alternative metrics (altmetrics)
- Indexing status & citation counts
- Citation reports & analytics tools
- Metrics in promotion, tenure & funding
- Responsible use of metrics

04

Practical Strategies for Publishing in Indexed Venues

- Choosing the right journal, series or publisher
- Manuscript preparation & metadata optimization
- Publisher policies regarding indexing
- Strategies to enhance citation impact
- Timing of publication for visibility
- Building a publication portfolio
- Preprints, repositories & discoverability
- Promoting research after publication

05

Edited Volumes, Books and Special Considerations

- Unique aspects of book publishing
- Indexing of monographs, edited volumes and chapters
- Book proposal to indexing: the journey
- Peer review, ISBN, DOI & metadata
- Book series and indexing requirements
- Visibility and marketing of books

06

Ethical, Regional and Future Perspectives

- Predatory publishing and quality assurance
- Ethical considerations in research evaluation
- Regional challenges & opportunities
- Open access and digital publishing
- Future of indexing and scholarly communication
- Future-implications for stakeholders

SUBMIT YOUR CHAPTER

Send your original chapter proposal to the following email:

2026.editedbook@gmail.com

We invite original chapter proposals from authors and experts. Selected proposals will be invited for full chapter submissions for consideration in the edited book.

CHAPTER FILE FORMAT

Submit your chapter in MS Word format (.doc/.docx).

File Name Format:

ThemeNo_Subtheme_Name

(Example: 2_1_IndexingCriteria.docx)

ABOUT SUBMISSIONS

We welcome original, unpublished contributions that provide theoretical insights, practical strategies, case studies, or critical perspectives related to the themes of the book.

WHO CAN CONTRIBUTE?

Researchers, academicians, librarians, publishers, academic editors, research scholars and policymakers from all disciplines.

NO PUBLICATION FEE

All services are provided with no charges.

Soft copy (PDF) of the Book will be provided with DOI.

Join us in advancing scholarly communication and empowering research in the global academic community.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR CHAPTER SUBMISSION

Thank you for your interest in contributing to this edited volume. Authors are requested to read the following guidelines carefully before preparing and submitting their chapters.

1 CHAPTER THEME AND SUB-THEME

The submitted chapter must correspond to one of the six major themes and their respective sub-themes presented in the book proposal.

File Naming Format:

ThemeNo_Subtheme_YourName

Example: 2_1_IndexingCriteria_Singh.docx

2 LANGUAGE

All manuscripts must be written in English. Chapters submitted in any other language will not be considered for review.

3 FILE FORMAT

Submit the complete chapter in Microsoft Word (.doc or .docx) format only.

4 WORD LIMIT

The manuscript should contain 3,000 to 6,000 words, inclusive of references, tables, figures, footnotes, and endnotes.

5 FORMATTING GUIDELINES

- Font: Times New Roman
- Body Text: 12 pt
- Main Headings: 14 pt (Bold)
- Line Spacing: 1.15
- Margins: 1 inch (2.54 cm) on all sides
- Alignment: Justified
- Heading Style: Use a clear hierarchical structure (Heading 1, Heading 2, Heading 3, etc.)

6 CITATION AND REFERENCING

All manuscripts must strictly follow the APA 7th Edition referencing style.

Authors should ensure that:

- Every in-text citation appears in the reference list.
- Every reference listed has been cited in the text.
- References are complete, accurate, and consistently formatted.

11 CHAPTER SUBMISSION

Please submit your completed chapter by email to:

2026.editedbook@gmail.com

The subject line should mention the selected theme number and chapter title. Ensure that the file name follows the prescribed naming convention before submission.

7 ORIGINALITY AND PLAGIARISM

Only original and unpublished manuscripts will be considered.

Authors are responsible for ensuring academic integrity. Manuscripts containing plagiarism or unethical publication practices will be rejected without further consideration.

8 PEER REVIEW PROCESS

All submissions will undergo a double-blind peer review.

The editorial process includes:

- ◆ Initial editorial screening
- ↑ External double-blind peer review
- ↓ Revision (if required)
- ⌞ Final editorial decision

The editorial team reserves the right to recommend revisions to improve clarity, coherence, formatting, and academic quality.

9 SELECTION CRITERIA

Selection of chapters will be based on:

- Originality and novelty
- Academic rigor
- Relevance to the theme and sub-theme
- Methodological quality
- Contribution to the field
- Quality of writing and presentation

A maximum of 15 chapters will be included in the edited volume.

10 WHAT AUTHORS WILL RECEIVE

Selected chapters will receive:

- ✓ DOI (Digital Object Identifier)
- ✓ Soft Copy (PDF) of the Published Book

There is no publication fee for accepted chapters.

LAST DATE FOR PAPER SUBMISSION

31ST AUGUST
2025
